

Climate Action and Resilience Specialist (Full-time, Regular)

The Squamish-Lillooet Regional District (SLRD) is located in southwestern BC and consists of four member municipalities (Squamish, Whistler, Pemberton, Lillooet) and 4 electoral areas. The region contains some of the most spectacular forests, waterways, and mountains in the province and affords an endless range of opportunities for outdoor adventure. Headquartered in Pemberton, which is the approximate geographic centre of the region, the SLRD delivers a wide range of regional, sub-regional and local services to its residents. Services include land use planning, solid waste management, building inspection, fire protection, emergency preparedness, 911 services, recreation, water and sewer utilities, regional transit, trails and open spaces as well as financial support for various community services.

The SLRD is seeking an experienced and collaborative individual to fill the position of Climate Action and Resilience Specialist. Reporting to the Director of Protective Services, this position is responsible for coordinating the SLRD's overall approach to climate action and resilience, and the implementation and monitoring of related strategies.

The ideal candidate will possess: a post secondary degree in environmental studies, community planning, sustainability, climate change, disaster risk reduction, or a related discipline; and a minimum of 5 years of professional experience developing and advancing climate action policies, programs and initiatives (an equivalent combination of experience, training and education may be considered). For further information, please refer to the full job description at www.slrd.bc.ca/employment.

Salary will be determined commensurate with experience. This position also offers a comprehensive benefits package, participation in the Municipal Pension Plan, a compressed work week and the possibility to work from home.

Interested candidates are invited to submit their resume with a cover letter by email, no later than October 31, 2021 at 11:59 pm, to:
