Water Quality Advisory for Britannia Beach Water System - Lifted January 31, 2020

The Squamish-Lillooet Regional District, in conjunction with Vancouver Coastal Health, is lifting the Water Quality Advisory for Britannia Beach on January 31, 2020.

The treatment system has been repaired and the water in the reservoir has now been treated by ultraviolet disinfection. Customers with very weak immune systems are no longer being advised to take extra precautions when ingesting the water.
